

DUE DATE:

February 25th, 2008

ASSIGNMENTS:

- Read Chapter 12 Disease and the Body's Immune System (pages300-335)
- Complete the chapter 12 review on page 335
 - o Identify #1-8
 - o Explain #1-10
 - o Apply #1-9
- Take care of your agar plates! BE SURE TO BRING TO CLASS!
 - o Make sure you are following the rules I gave you in class.
 - o Re-swab if you didn't do it correctly in class
 - o Keep plates covered and upside-down
 - o Check periodically to see how things are growing
 - If no growth after 1 week, re-swab something else
 - If crowded growth, store in refrigerator
- SEMESTER EXAM! Complete the semester exam in your test book that covers chapters 1-11. The test will be worth 75 points. Report score by next class.
- Print out and review science fair REQUIREMENTS & RUBRIC (posted on website) These hand-outs will show you how you will be graded so that you can be sure to include everything necessary in your project. Bring these with you to class so that we can discuss them.
- Don't forget about your big lab project... you should be experimenting!! DUE DATE IS NOW SET... April 7th, 2008. This date is the day of the science fair. It will start at 6 pm at New Covenant Church in Arnold.
- Reminder: Reviewing Chapter 13 is your responsibility. You read this chapter over the summer but the material is covered in test #7. Review it and know it by the time you are tested on it!! (March 3)