

Although the syllabus says we would start SC's, we are going to wait till after To Kill a Mockingbird. Therefore you have no SC homework. You should study for the Time CA quiz which you will take next week.

You are to write the newspaper articles based on To Kill a Mockingbird as described on page 93. You can earn extra credit if your newspaper looks like a newspaper. Remember to give your feature article a headline. You also need to write a topic sentence for the multi-paragraph essay on To Kill a Mockingbird. Remember you may discuss any aspect from a character analysis to a discussion of parenting. You just need to be able to prove your topic sentence with specific references. DO NOT GIVE ME A PLOT SUMMARY.

If you have any questions, email me or call me. I teach tomorrow, but I will be available the rest of the week.
